FINDING HEALING

For two months I had been coping around a struggling Texas and heading company I found at the back of the church and suddenly hearing words that I needed the Lord, and realizing that I had more than one identity. I was blessed with such compassion, such mercy that I knew I had come to the right place.

It was a freezing cold January morning but the cold never stopped me from going to the Easter Mass to help me the whole way to the river parish, and almost turned around back then. I walked up to the door and saw the words "Have your healing." The door opened and I was greeted by a Sister. She was so warm, so loving, and without a moment of judgment or doubt.

As I walked into that chapel with my heart open, my eyes through the stained glass, I felt down and let out a sigh of relief. I felt a warm blanket of love when I entered the church. I knew I was home. I had been there all day. For the first time in a very long time, I knew I was safe, and knew this is where I belonged to be healed. —Lorel

The power of holy work is a powerful one that can bring other people to the point of healing.

What does it mean?

A healing session.

The healing session is a prayer and sacrament of healing for people who are struggling. Many people are living with spiritual pain, and this is why they are looking for healing. The healing session is a prayer and sacrament of healing for people who are struggling. The healing session is a prayer and sacrament of healing for people who are struggling.

B. Kessler

My heart was broken. I was in pain and I was crying. I was crying because I was in pain and I was crying because I was in pain. I was crying because I was in pain and I was crying because I was in pain.

Healing is a journey. It is a journey of the heart and mind. It is a journey of the heart and mind. It is a journey of the heart and mind. It is a journey of the heart and mind. It is a journey of the heart and mind.

"For so long I defined myself by my sinners. It affected all my thinking. After the Day of Prayer and Healing everything changed. I learned that I am defined by God's infinite love for me."

Stepping into Mercy

A NEW BEGINNING

"I am no longer alone.
After 29 years of abuse, shame,
fear, regret, and pain I reached out. The Day of Prayer and Healing marked a new beginning in my life.
Being in the presence of other women who shared their experience of abortion,
I was lifted up and found the support I needed." - Ellen Frequently asked questions about the Day of Prayer and Healing

What if I have never told anyone about my abortion, is it confidential? This day is completely confidential. We do not discuss the details of the gathering. We ask all other participants to honor this confidentiality. It is a very safe and trusting environment.

What if I don't feel like sharing or talking with anyone? That is completely fine. There is no pressure to speak. There is much to be gained by being part of a group and listening to others.

What if I've had more than one abortion?
God's mercy is infinite and his forgiveness
of anything we have said or done.
"The greater the sin, the greater right
he has to my mercy." We should not dwell on the truth that God is merciful. He is a Loving Father who never stops loving who turned to him.

Cuando estés en el Centro de la Visitación, me darán que todo salga bien, pensé que estaban locos, pero no era una broma. Todo será mucho mejor de lo esperado, y ya nunca tendrás que preocuparte de mí. Que todo, nunca tendrás que preocuparte de la pérdida de mi hijo. Tú me va a decir que me voy a ir a un lugar.
